felicitations of the resource person by organizing committee.
The beginning of the session was very interesting. He started the session by explaining the about the research metrics.
He explained about different parameters of research methodology just like impact factor, h-index, g-index etc. He told us about how can we measure the impact factor of a research paper and elaborately explained all other parameters. He also highlighted about in his talk about the citation of journals. Some other topics like ranking of journals were delivered by the resource person. He told us about the VIDWAN - Expert database and national research network UGC - core list of journals. He gave us the opportunity to take about how can we utilize the tool about the research metrics of an institution and individual person. I think not only me but also other faculty members will be benefited by his valuable speech. The resource person told us that the tools which can help us in research overall the
