Report on Learning Through Mass Media Programme

(গণ সংযোগ মাধ্যমৰ জৰিয়তে শিক্ষণ)

Organized by Department of Assamese in collaboration with IQAC

March 14th to April 11th, 2023

The Learning Through Mass Media Programme, organized by the Assamese Department of Kaliabor College in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), took place over four days from March 14th to April 11th, 2023. This interactive program aimed to engage students and faculty in diverse forms of media to enhance their learning experiences.

Day 1: Movie Screening of "Village Rockstars" (14/03/2023). The program kicked off with a movie screening of "Village Rockstars," attracting 64 participants from the departments of Assamese, Political Science, and Zoology. The film provided a cultural and cinematic experience, fostering interdisciplinary engagement among the students.

Day 2: Documentary Screening of "Baghjan Reels: An Untold Story" (23/03/2023). The second day featured a documentary screening titled "Baghjan Reels: An Untold Story," drawing 58 participants from the Department of Assamese. The documentary shed light on untold narratives, providing a platform for critical discussions and reflections.

Day 3: Koliburhi Nyitya - Folk Dance Performance (06/04/23). A cultural extravaganza unfolded on the third day with the performance of "Koliburhi Nyitya," a folk dance presented by local artists from Sonari Gaon, Kaliabor. The event showcased the rich cultural heritage of the region and drew a substantial audience of 93 participants from the Assamese department and college faculties.

Day 4: Education Through Mime by Mohit Kumar Nath (11/04/23). The program concluded on a creative note with a session on "Education Through Mime" by Mohit Kumar Nath, a renowned mime artist from Assam. This unique approach to education captivated 34 participants from the Assamese department, providing a different perspective on learning and expression.
